Finite full-wave compensation and genuinely nested observations