

Bars use the sum of two endpoint numerical differences at the stored argmax; they are not an error envelope for all 25 probes.
Every task compares the same declared target probe in both wall endpoints. Recorded empirical margins have no continuum certificate.